All laundry coming from a sick room should be washed with Carbonol, the wonderful coal tar disinfectant. The addition of a little Carbonol to the water will turn it into a powerful disinfectant, destroying germs in the clothing, sheets, etc., making them sterile.

If you send your laundry out side of the house, you ought to insist that your laundress use a disinfectant regularly, for she mixes up your clothes with those of other people and disease germs may be transmitted in this way. Carbonol is so powerful that very little of it is used at a time, accordingly its cost is insignificant.

Reception to Mr. and Mrs. Homer C. Shattuck—Death of Mrs. Eliza Ranney.

An informal reception was given Mr. and Mrs. Homer C. Shattuck at their home last Wednesday evening by the members of Green Mountain Grange, No. 1, relatives and friends. It was a complete surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Shattuck, but they soon rallied and gave to their 75 or more guests a very enjoyable evening. There were several places at which cards were played, and games were indulged in by the young people on the spacious lawn, and later in the evening refreshments of cake and coffee were served, after which in a few well chosen words Worthy Master Arthur Olcott, on behalf of the company assembled, presented them with a very pretty set of dishes, finished in gold and white and containing over one hundred pieces. Mr. and Mrs. Shattuck both expressed their appreciation of and sincere thanks for the gift thus bestowed and extended an invitation to all present to come again, thus closing one of the many happy events of their early married life.

On Tuesday afternoon, July 21, a beautiful life came to a close, that of Mrs. Eliza Ranney. Her life had been a long and happy one, and in her 86 years she had made a large circle of friends. She was a woman who was never idle and whose hands were always working with the needle or for others. Mrs. Ranney was born in Westminster West, March 21, 1818, the daughter of Atherton and Olive Hallett Hall. On February 14, 1839, she married George Ranney of Westminster West, where they lived for two years. Then they came by wagon to the Morrill farm which they bought and where the remainder of her life was spent. She has been most tenderly cared for by Mrs. Morrill, who has sacrificed all that a daughter could give to her mother. Her death was the loss of a member of the First Congregational church, which she has liberally contributed to. The funeral services were held at the Morrill farm, Thursday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. S. F. Goodheart officiating. She is survived by Mrs. George Morrill, Mrs. F. A. Pickett, Freeman Ranney and Charles Ranney. She leaves also seven grand children. The many and beautiful flowers expressed the sympathy and the esteem in which she was held, for her life has been an example for both old and young to follow.
